November 2023 Newsletter

We're having a great fall with lots of exciting shows. One thing we have to deal with is what to pack when it's summer temperatures in parts of Texas but winter conditions just a few states over- and all in one week. But we love being on the road so it's just part of the fun.

Recently I recorded a song with The Bellamy Brothers and we're making plans to shoot a video for it in December which is planned to be out sometime in January. Howard and David are always creative in everything they do, so this will be fun I'm sure. Once they make an official announcement, I'll let you know more details.

That's all for now but be sure to check all our upcoming shows on the website and come see us! Take care, Gene

Fun At The Fair

Don't you love a good fair? I know we do. This past Saturday we all had a good time at the Comal County Fair in New Braunfels, TX. The band really gets out and checks it all out. You can find them in the Midway looking for the corn dogs, Turkey Legs and more. ...

80 For 80 - Brownies

Longtime fan Janis Willis surprised me at our Shipshewana, IN show October 5th with 80 of her homemade brownies in honor of my upcoming 80th birthday. That's what you call a sweet surprise! Janis has been to so many of my shows I don't know if even she has kept count...
